Dr. Debbie Stout of DoctorS Nonprofit Consulting was honored by the Woman's Club of Fullerton in early May with their 2012-13 President's Award for her successful media relations campaign to elevate the standing of the club in the local press. Also mentioned was her leadership on the Purple Washcloth Project in support of local domestic violence providers.

Drs. Dallas and Debbie Stout provide a broad array of consultation services to non-profit and grassroots groups, coalitions, and agencies throughout Southern California. They specialize in all aspects of research including program evaluation as well as program design and grant writing. They are also available for staff or volunteer training and public speaking requests.

Both are on the faculty at California State University Fullerton and the University of the Rockies. For more info see their website at www.doctorSconsulting.org
